

MERCY COLLEGE

International Admissions Scandinavian Advantages

Overview

Mercy College welcomes Scandinavian students to New York. We offer several unique advantages for students from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland and Iceland.

Sophomore Status for Undergraduates

At Mercy, Scandinavian students with an upper-secondary diploma are granted sophomore status, which means that you can complete your bachelor's degree in three years. We also offer advanced standing for International Baccalaureate students and undergraduate scholarships.

English Language Proficiency Waivers

Mercy waives TOEFL/IELTS test requirements for most students from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, and Iceland. Get in touch to see if you qualify.

Lanekassen, CSN, Icelandic Student Loan Fund & Government Funding Friendly

Ask about how you can fund your education with government grants and loans. Letters are provided for support.

Student Life

Campus involvement is fun and integral to the college experience. Our international students are active in dozens of student clubs, athletics and 16 honor societies.

On-Campus Housing in Manhattan and Dobbs Ferry

Live in the heart of New York City in Dorm34, our brand new dormitories in midtown Manhattan. You can live just a few minutes from prestigious internships at top-ranked companies, steps from world-class cultural institutions and sightseeing, and enjoy access to multiple train lines for easy travel around the city. If you prefer a more serene setting, we also offer state-of-the-art residence halls on our suburban Dobbs Ferry campus, just 40 minutes from New York City.
