

Faculty and Staff Author Recognition with Q&A

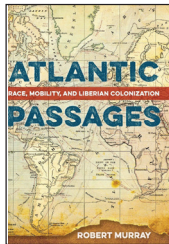

Moderated by School of Liberal Arts Dean Peter West
Thursday, Sept. 21 • Westchester Campus, Library

Matthijs Koopmans
Using Time Series to Analyze Long-Range Fractal Patterns

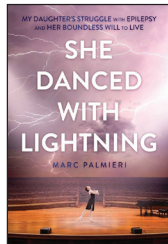

School of Education, 2020, SAGE Publications

Robert Murray
Atlantic Passages: Race, Mobility, and Liberian Colonization

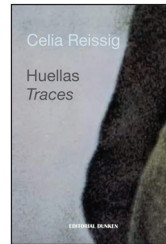

School of Liberal Arts, 2021, University of Florida Press

Marc Palmieri
She Danced with Lightning: My Daughter's Struggle with Epilepsy and Her Boundless Will to Live

School of Liberal Arts, 2022, Post Hill Press

Celia Reissig
Huellas/Traces

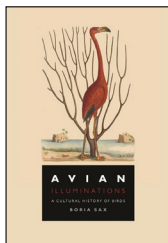

School of Liberal Arts, 2020, Editorial Dunken

Adriana Erin Rivera
Paloma's Song for Puerto Rico: A Diary from 1898

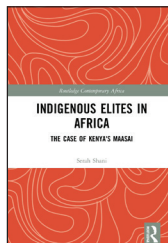

Marketing, 2023, Capstone Publishing/Stone Arch Books

Boria Sax
Avian Illuminations: A Cultural History of Birds

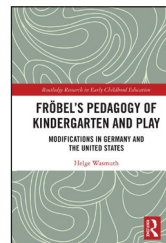

School of Liberal Arts, 2021, Reaktion Books

Serah Shani
Indigenous Elites in Africa: The Case of Kenya's Maasai

School of Social & Behavioral Sciences, 2022, Routledge

Helge Wasmuth
Fröbel's Pedagogy of Kindergarten and Play: Modifications in Germany and the United States

School of Education, 2020, Routledge

Seth Weitzman
From Conflict to Collaboration: A School Leader's Guide to Unleashing Conflict's Problem-Solving Power

School of Education, 2022, Rowman & Littlefield (Co-author: Rob Feirsen)