CRRSAA

Eligible students (as defined below) will automatically receive a one-time grant based on their Expected Family Contribution (EFC), as calculated using the information provided on the 2020-2021 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). Grants will be awarded as follows:

$0-4,999 EFC will receive $550
$5,000-$9,999 EFC will receive $450
$10,000-$14,999 EFC will receive $350
$15,000 EFC and above will receive $250

To be eligible for federal HEERF II grants, students must be:

- 1. Enrolled as a student at Mercy College for the spring 2021 term.
- 2. Have a valid EFC as determined by complete information submitted on the 2020-21 FAFSA.
- 3. A U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen as determined by information verified on the 2020-21 FAFSA.

Students are not eligible for federal HEERF II one-time grants if:

1. They have not filed a 2020-21 FAFSA.
2. They are employees and/or their spouse/domestic partner and/or dependents are taking classes and receiving tuition remission from Mercy College.
3. They are international or undocumented students, or their citizenship status could not be verified.
4. They are high school students enrolled as part of our High School articulation agreement.
