Overview

Mercy University welcomes Scandinavian students to New York. We offer several unique advantages for students from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland and Iceland.

Sophomore Status for Undergraduates

At Mercy, Scandinavian students with an upper-secondary diploma are granted sophomore status, which means that you can complete your bachelor's degree in three years. We also offer advanced standing for International Baccalaureate students and undergraduate scholarships.

English Language Proficiency Waivers

Mercy waives TOEFL/IELTS test requirements for most students from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, and Iceland. Get in touch to see if you qualify.

Lanekassen, CSN, Icelandic Student Loan Fund & Government Funding Friendly

Ask about how you can fund your education with government grants and loans. Letters are provided for support.

Short-Term Study Abroad

Your time studying and living in New York City at Mercy University will provide you so much more than what's on the syllabus, giving you invaluable learning, travel and networking opportunities as well as a well-rounded global perspective.

On-Campus Housing in Manhattan and Westchester

Live in the heart of New York City in Dorm34, our dormitories in midtown Manhattan. You can live just a few minutes from prestigious internships at top-ranked companies, steps from world-class cultural institutions and sightseeing, and enjoy access to multiple train lines for easy travel around the city. If you prefer a more serene setting, we also offer state-of-the-art residence halls on our suburban Westchester campus, just 40 minutes from New York City.
